Carter Conlon—his focus on prayer isn’t what the culture wants, but it’s exactly what it needs!

The Senior Pastor of the historic Times Square Church in NYC, Carter speaks not only to the urgent need for prayer in our times—but eloquently to the perils of the culture in which we’re living today if we don’t!

Ron Deal—knows the issues faced by today’s blended families.

As Director of Blended Family Ministries for FamilyLife and author of The Smart Stepfamily, no one speaks any more clearly to the needs of families—blended or otherwise!

Steve Douglass—a passion for helping to fulfill the Great Commission by building spiritual movements everywhere!

A graduate of MIT and Harvard Business School, and as President of CRU, he heads up a worldwide ministry involving thousands of missionaries and volunteers with a significant presence in nearly 200 countries.

Jim Garlow—in addressing the “hot button” cultural issues, Jim speaks powerfully to applying God’s Word to the messy situations in today’s world. Pastor, author and cultural commentator with a Ph.D in Historical Theology, Jim urges we be biblical—not political!

Don Green—speaks to making Scripture the foundation for God’s blessing His people and saving the loss. A former litigation attorney, Don added a Master of Divinity and a Master of Theology degree to his resume and is now pastor of Truth Community Church in Cincinnati, Ohio.

Bob Lepine—from his own experience, helping men and women to build stronger homes and communities with biblical answers for the issues every family faces!

Bob is Senior VP for FamilyLife and co-host with Dennis Rainey for the daily FamilyLife Today radio broadcast.

Anne Graham Lotz—calling people into a personal relationship with God through His Word. The New York Time named Anne one of the five most influential evangelists of her generation. A best-selling author she is Founder and President of AnGel Ministries and the 2016-2017 Chair for the National Day of Prayer Task Force.

Max Lucado—described as a preacher with a storyteller's gift, a pastor's heart and a poet's pen. Max is the author of over 30 books translated into scores of languages worldwide. He serves as Minister of Preaching at Oak Hills Church in San Antonio, Texas.

John MacArthur—a name synonymous with careful study and verse-by-verse exposition of the Bible. John is a pastor, author and President of The Master's College and the Master's Seminary, committed to training men for pastoral ministry around the world.

Brad Mattes—is a veteran of the pro-life cause and one of America's foremost voices in educating and advocating for the protection of all human life. Brad is co-founder and president of Life Issues Institute in Cincinnati, Ohio.

Barry Meguiar—is a "car guy" who knows how to rev up God's purpose for your life—to win others to Christ!

A highly successful businessman, internationally known for his "Car Crazy TV program, Barry is the founder of the lay ministry, "Revival Outside the Walls" and there's no denying his passion for sharing his faith outside the walls of the church!

Eric Metaxas—one of few commentators who command regular attention from national media for his bold articulation of a Christian worldview.

Eric is a New York Times best-selling author, talk-show host, and regular commentator for the Colson Center's "BreakPoint" radio broadcast heard daily.

Charles Morris—as a former journalist with the Associated Press, he has seen the crying need of today's culture up close. It's his desire to take individuals from their everyday world and turn them to the cross of Jesus Christ!

Dennis Rainey—is a much sought international spokesman for his biblical perspective on marriage and families! Dennis is President of FamilyLife, now celebrating 40 years of ministry, and co-host of the popular daily program, "FamilyLife Today."

John Sorensen—encouraging Christians to step up; to learn how to share their faith in ordinary conversations.

John is President of Evangelism Explosion International and an international speaker in conferences worldwide.

Don Stephens—Founder and President of Mercy Ships, serving the disadvantaged with mercy and hope for nearly 40 years.

The Mercy Ships story aboard the Africa Mercy reported by CBS 60 Minutes was awarded the Outstanding Feature Story in a News Magazine for the News and Documentary Emmy Awards ceremony in 2014.

Ed Stetzer—speaks with intelligence to contemporary concerns from the Christian worldview. Ed is Chair for the Billy Graham Distinguished Endowed Chair for Church, Mission, and Evangelism and is Executive Director of the Billy Graham Center for Evangelism at Wheaton College and is also part of the Colson Center broadcast team, co-hosting with John Stonestreet on “BreakPoint This Weekend.”

John Stonestreet—a gifted communicator on areas of faith and culture, theology, worldview, and apologetics—just for starters! John is President of the Chuck Colson Center for Christian Worldview and co-host of BreakPoint with Eric Metaxas and is the voice of the Center’s “The Point” daily feature.

Joni Eareckson Tada—undeniably the foremost advocate in the world today for people with disabilities. Joni regularly shares the speaking platform with presidents and world leaders and is Founder and CEO of Joni and Friends International Disability Center headquartered in southern California as well as the author of numerous books, the focus of videos and films released around the globe.

Nancy DeMoss Wolgemuth—calling women to heart revival and biblical womanhood. She is the speaker for Revive Our Hearts radio, the author of 18 books and is the host for the annual Ture Women Conference attended by thousands each year in drawing women back to biblical womanhood.
