

question of the month

If you were at NRB this year, you probably made it a point to visit Name that Tune at least for a few songs ☺. Congratulations to those who won a prize that night—including our own Bill Reitler. That got us wondering ... so we asked a few more friends ... have you ever won a prize?

▶ In 2005 I attended my very first GMA Conference in Nashville. On the last night names were drawn for various prizes and I won a DVD package of every Super Bowl game played up until 2003.

Dave Benton
Program/Music Director
Celebration Radio/KAMB
(Merced CA)

▶ I won a dozen roses from a local florist through a radio contest when I was in high school. I was caller 9! Yes, mom got the roses. Evidence of God's sovereignty? Years later I hired that DJ for WAWZ.

Scott Taylor
General Manager
WAWZ (Zarephath NJ)

▶ I was involved in the 4-H Livestock Program as a kid. I showed pigs and sheep and won several prizes for them.

Jon Garrison
Chief Engineer
WRMB (Boynton Beach FL)

▶ Haven't won anything as far as a prize, but we win something every day from Ambassador! A line up of great, inspirational, Christ centered programming, delivered to us by the best satellite and internet distribution system in the world (IMO). Amb-OS makes programming more efficient for us here at WNLR. Approximately 50% of our programming is delivered to our doorstep each day by Amb-OS. And Ambassador's continued pursuit of excellence each day is not only a blessing to Christian broadcasters, it's glorifying our Lord. Thanks for all you guys do for us.

Russ Whitesell, Program Director
WNLR (Harrisonburg VA)

▶ I remember winning a cake at a carnival at the cake walk as a second grader. A little later in my life, I won movie tickets to see Superman 2. Then in 1990 I was one of 20 in the running to win a car, though I didn't win the grand prize, I did win some goodies from all the sponsors. But my ultimate prize I have ever won is when my Redeemer called me to be His child. I find that this prize supersedes anything I could ever win.

Kelly Auel, Traffic/Billing/Promotions/Sales
KKMC (Salinas CA)

▶ I won Nothing once. I bought a bottle of Snapple and under the lid it said, "You Won Nothing!" So I own nothing. I keep Nothing in the bank. You look in my checkbook and you will see "Nothing!"

Rich Bruce, General Manager
WVRS (Elizabeth City NC)
