

Recommended Reads From Mark Conner

Heaven (Randy Alcorn)

Discusses many aspects of what Heaven may be like according to the Bible. Makes you re-think what you thought Heaven was all about.

Heaven by W.A. Criswell.

The book addresses many questions people ask about Heaven. Different than Randy Alcorn's book. But very good none the less.

It's Time to Pray (Carter Conlon)

Pastor Carter gives a great lesson from Mark Chapter 9 and our walk with the Lord. Very uplifting stories from his life. Carter has such a deep heart for God.

Killing Lincoln (Bill O'Reilly)

Fascinating book about the assassination plot to kill President Lincoln. Especially when we actually went to Washington D.C. and explored the museum.

Riches Stored in Secret Places (Verdell Davis)

Fascinating book about the assassination plot to kill President Lincoln. Especially when we actually went to Washington D.C. and explored the museum.

The United States of Trump by Bill O'Reilly

I really liked Killing Lincoln and thought I'd try another O'Reilly book. Tells the story of Donald Trump. His growing up, family, and goals he set. What an insightful look see.
