

For the week of:

10 | 19 | 20

On This Day...

MONDAY 10/19

Known as Black Monday, the stock market crash of 1987 saw the Dow Jones fall more than 20% in a single day. That remains the largest percentage loss in history.

TUESDAY 10/20

One of the 20th century's most famous and distinctive buildings, the Sydney Opera House opened its doors in 1973. Typically, it hosts 2,000 shows to 1.5 million people per year.

WEDNESDAY 10/21

Did you hear that? Your stomach is grumbling! Well, today is National Pumpkin Cheesecake Day so usher in all the flavors of fall with a treat—your tastebuds will thank you! 😊

THURSDAY 10/22

In a shocking TV announcement, JFK shared that US spy planes detected Soviet nuclear weapons in Cuba and ordered a naval "quarantine" of the Communist nation in 1962.

FRIDAY 10/23

In 1915, over 25,000 women marched up Fifth Avenue in NYC to advocate for women's suffrage. It wasn't until five years later that females would be granted the right to vote.

DID YOU KNOW?

- A new study has found that watching videos of cute animals is good for your mental health.
- Mattel has unveiled a new Susan B. Anthony Barbie doll to celebrate the 100th anniversary of the 19th Amendment, which gave women the right to vote.
- (Very) slowly but surely, Iceland is getting bigger. The island nation is located on the Mid-Atlantic Ridge, which is where two continental plates—the Eurasian and North American plates—meet. These two plates are moving apart bringing Iceland along for the ride. Therefore the country grows about five centimeters per year. As the island splits, volcanic activity fills in the gap to create more land mass—in fact, that's how Iceland came to be in the first place.

IN OTHER WORDS...

"The promise of heaven is the promise of answered prayer."

— Max Lucado

(You Are Never Alone Special)

"God is our refuge, our strength in the midst of trouble. He is the starting point—a fixed reference point in a world of shifting circumstances. He is more real than any circumstance, any trouble that may touch your life this day, or in the days to come."

— Nancy DeMoss Wolgemuth

Weekly Verse

Though the Lord is exalted, he looks kindly on the lowly; though lofty, he sees them from afar. Though I walk in the midst of trouble, you preserve my life. You stretch out your hand against the anger of my foes; with your right hand you save me. The Lord will vindicate me; your love, Lord, endures forever —do not abandon the works of your hands.

— Psalm 138:6-8 (NIV)

Ending Soon ...

We're sorry to announce that the popular feature, The Book (1:00 daily from Museum of the Bible), will cease syndication at month end. However, we're happy to encourage station partners with a robust list of outstanding options for replacement—everything from evangelism to stewardship, family encouragement to cultural commentary. You will find a convenient listing with content description at our website. Contact Hannah@ambaa.com for confirming addition for any of these!
