

For the week of:

10 | 26 | 20

On This Day...

MONDAY 10/26

Today, on National Day of the Deployed, we salute not only our soldiers for their courage, but also their families who have sacrificed so much for our freedom.

TUESDAY 10/27

Have you ever used the phrase—a wise person once told me...? On National Mentoring Day, take time to thank your trusted advisor for their significant impact in your life.

WEDNESDAY 10/28

Recognized as the oldest institution of higher education in the US, the college that became Harvard University was founded by the Massachusetts Bay Colony in 1636.

THURSDAY 10/29

In 1998, 77-year old John Glenn was the oldest human ever to travel in space. During the nine-day mission, he served as part of a NASA study on health problems associated with aging.

FRIDAY 10/30

There's nothing better than the feeling of crossing things off your to-do list, wouldn't you agree? In honor of National Checklist Day, we're wishing you a very productive Friday. 😊

DID YOU KNOW?

- Orchids are big business—to the tune of $400 million per year globally. Taking the top spot in orchid exports around the world is Thailand. Domestically, orchids are considered a sign of good hospitality but more than half of the orchids grown locally are actually exported to 60 markets around the world.
- People across the country are ready to go and are already on the road. According to the Dallas Federal Reserve, 69% of U.S. workers commuted to work daily or somedays in September—up from a low of 55% in May.
- Some 17% of consumers ages 15 and older named Facebook as one of the three apps they can least do without. Closing in on Facebook is Instagram, with 13% share of respondents.

IN OTHER WORDS...

**Quotes from Voting Tool Kit*

"Approach this election from a kingdom perspective."

— Charles Morris

"Voting is a precious God-given right that all of us have a duty to exercise."

— John Sorensen

"As American citizens, it is our privilege to vote."

— Steve Douglass

Weekly Verse

"As the rain and the snow come down from heaven, and do not return to it without watering the earth and making it bud and flourish, so that it yields seed for the sower and bread for the eater, so is my word that goes out from my mouth: It will not return to me empty, but will accomplish what I desire and achieve the purpose for which I sent it. You will go out in joy and be led forth in peace..."

— Isaiah 55:10-12 (NIV)

Max Lucado Special

"We are saved by faith alone but the faith that saves is never alone." Good words from Martin Luther as we anticipate Reformation Sunday. And exactly the message in Max Lucado's new and so timely special "You Are Never Alone." The half-hour program is on your Amb-OS receiver now.
