- Movie theaters make roughly 85% of their profit off concession stands. This is because ticket revenues have to be shared with the movie distributors.
- Both Motel 6 and Super 8 got their names from the original prices of the rooms. Motel 6 started at $6 in 1962, and Super 8 at $8.88 in 1974.
- Originally, the Eiffel Tower was going to be erected in Barcelona, but the project was rejected because citizens thought it was an eyesore.
- The name for the shape of Pringles is called a “Hyperbolic Paraboloid”.

IN OTHER WORDS...

“God uses adversity to show us what is in our hearts, to purify us, and to deepen our dependence on Him.”

– Nancy DeMoss Wolgemuth

“Every good thing in life has this dual potential. We can either hold it tight or we can give it to God.”

– Charles Morris

Weekly Verse

“Therefore we do not lose heart. Even though our outward man is perishing, yet the inward man is being renewed day by day. For our light affliction, which is but for a moment, is working for us a far more exceeding and eternal weight of glory, while we do not look at the things which are seen, but at the things which are not seen. For the things which are seen are temporary, but the things which are not seen are eternal.”

– 2 Corinthians 4:16-18 (NKJV)
