On This Day...

MONDAY 6/15

Have you ever tried balancing on a tightrope? This incredible feat was first accomplished in 2012 when Nik Wallenda successfully tightrope walked over Niagara Falls.

TUESDAY 6/16

It seems that 2020 has been quite the roller coaster, wouldn't you say? Fitting that today in 1884, America's first roller coaster opened to the public at Coney Island in New York.

WEDNESDAY 6/17

The constant battle every parent faces: "Susie, eat your veggies!" For National Eat Your Vegetables Day, find a fun recipe and get those kids cooking in the kitchen!

THURSDAY 6/18

Considered one of the greatest political speeches of all time, Prime Minister Winston Churchill rallied the weary British soldiers in 1940 with his famous speech "Final Hour."

FRIDAY 6/19

Known for its cheerful bee character and heart-healthy benefits, America's favorite cereal created in 1941, was first named Cheerie Oats and now known as Cheerios.

DID YOU KNOW?

- If you love hazelnuts, you might want to thank Turkey for that—it produces more than 70% of the entire world supply.
- Bats in the belfry? If you live in Austin, check out the Congress Avenue Bridge—home to some 1.5 million bats (the largest urban colony of bats in the world!).
- We all love white sand beaches but how do you feel about emerald sand? There are just four green beaches in the world including one on Hawaii's Big Island called Papakolea Beach. It sits on the site of a volcano eruption. Caused by ancient lava flow, the color comes from olivine, a relatively heavy mineral that tends to stick rather than wash out to sea.
- Appropriately named Blood Falls, there is a waterfall in Antarctica that runs red as blood when its iron-rich water is first exposed to oxygen and sunlight.

IN OTHER WORDS...

"Where a loving, faithful dad is present, life and family are more stable and children are more blessed."

— Brad Mattes

"Raising children isn't only about behavior modification. It's about connecting with their heart — the source of behavior."

— Jim Daly

Weekly Verse

"Children are a heritage from the Lord, offspring a reward from him. Like arrows in the hand a of warrior are children born in one's youth. Blessed is the man whose quiver is full of them. They will not be put to shame when they contend with their opponents in court."

— Psalm 127: 3-5 (NIV)

Station Resource:

Fathers are the foundation of a family unit. With June 21st just around the corner, we have all the materials you need to encourage your listeners to express their appreciation and admiration for their father! Don't miss our Father's Day Tool Kit complete with social media graphics, an updated infographic, speaker PSAs, ministry resources and more. Although this Father's Day may look different than years past, we hope it holds some of the sweetest memories for years to come.
