On This Day...

MONDAY 9/7

While today is called Labor Day, many of us don't. Starting as a worker's rights movement, the first Monday in September became a federal holiday in 1894 by President Cleveland.

TUESDAY 9/8

Have you checked your voicemail yet today? Falling on the day after Labor Day, Telephone Tuesday is notorious for a spike in business and school-related calls.

WEDNESDAY 9/9

Looking for a new activity? On 9/9 we celebrate International Sudoku Day. Game enthusiasts will no doubt notice the date's symbolism. Grab a pencil and let the thinking begin.

THURSDAY 9/10

One of the largest non-profits and famous for their incredible imagery—the first National Geographic Special, the US expedition to Mount Everest, aired on CBS in 1965.

FRIDAY 9/11

A moment in time we will never forget—the devastating news of 9/11/2001. On Patriots Day we remember and mourn the nearly 3,000 lives taken that fatal day. Proverbs 18:10

FAST FOOD FLASHBACK

- The original Starbucks store (Seattle WA) has not changed much since 1971. Windows sport the original logo and espresso shots are still pulled on a manual machine.
- When the first Dunkin' Donuts opened (Quincy MA) a cup of coffee cost 10 cents and doughnuts were shaped with edible handles for easier dunking.
- Now a museum, the site of the first Waffle House (Avondale Estates GA) is filled with memorabilia from the chain's 64-year history.
- The original Chick-fil-A (Hapeville GA) encourages guests to try something from their 1940's menu such as a BLT or the Hot Brown.

IN OTHER WORDS...

"The thing to do is not to keep going back to what we lost, but to keep looking ahead at what we're going to gain."

— Charles Morris

"By God's grace we can have a great impact on our future generations! We just need to step in and look up for God's wisdom!"

— Ann Wilson

Weekly Verse

"This, in essence, is the message we heard from Christ and are passing on to you: God is light, pure light; there's not a trace of darkness in him. If we claim that we experience a shared life with him and continue to stumble around in the dark, we're obviously lying through our teeth—we're not living what we claim. But if we walk in the light, God himself being the light, we also experience a shared life with one another, as the sacrificed blood of Jesus, God's Son, purges all our sin."

— 1 John 1: 5-7 (The Message)

Join Carter Conlon

Four hundred years ago, after a rugged first year in America, the pilgrims of Plymouth Colony gathered to pray. Losing half their number since landing, their petition was that "our souls may earnestly long after the food of eternal life." Join Carter Conlon LIVE from Plymouth Rock on Tuesday, October 6, for a return to the petition for God's forgiveness and "unspeakable mercy" for our country.
