

For the week of:

02 | 15 | 2021

On This Day...

MONDAY 2/15

President's Day, initially established in 1885 to honor George Washington, now highlights all U.S. presidents past and present. A good reminder to pray for President Biden!

TUESDAY 2/16

Everyone's favorite breakfast is back—it's National Pancake Day! Whether you prefer your short stack with blueberries or chocolate chips, start your day off with this sweet treat.

WEDNESDAY 2/17

Every day should be Random Acts of Kindness Day! You never know how a small gesture of love can positively affect someone. Look for ways to be kind today!

THURSDAY 2/18

Drumroll please ... the Academy of Motion Picture Arts and Sciences announced the winners of the first Academy Awards in 1929, notably different from today's Oscars ceremony.

FRIDAY 2/19

Stranded for several months by snow in the Sierra Nevada Mountains, the first rescuers reached surviving members of the Donner Party, a group of California-bound pioneers in 1847.

DID YOU KNOW?

TIME ZONE EDITION

- In case you were wondering ... the Eastern Time Zone hits a whopping 23 states (plus the District of Columbia) and covers the largest percentage of the U.S. population.
- Central Time comes in a close second, touching 20 states, and encompasses the most land area.
- Many states straddle two time zones –in the Central Time Zone, for example, only half of the states fall entirely within that zone; the other half have parts in the Eastern or Mountain zones.
- Federal law recognizes nine official time zones; six of them cover the 50 states, while the other three cover U.S. territories.
- Of the 50 states, only two do not observe Daylight Savings Time: Arizona and Hawaii.

IN OTHER WORDS...

"Is God as near to you as your next breath? This type of relationship with God comes when you know Him personally."

–Steve Douglass

Weekly Verse

But he knows the way that I take; when he has tested me, will come forth as gold. My feet have closely followed his steps; I have kept to his way without turning aside. I have not departed from the commands of his lips; I have treasured the words of his mouth more than my daily bread.

He carries out his decree against me, and many such plans he still has in store.

Job 23: 10-12, 14 (NIV)

EASTER / APRIL 4

Planning special content for Easter already?

This year Carter Conlon has a very unique message titled "The Resurrected Body of Christ" ... that's us! What would it mean if the Church actually acted like we ought, as many parts but one body.
