On This Day...

MONDAY 3/22

Recognized as one of the four major championships in professional golf, The Masters was first hosted by the Augusta National Golf Club in 1934.

TUESDAY 3/23

Last year was marked by a dog adoption craze. Looking for another excuse? On National Puppy Day, consider the joy these furballs could bring to your home!

WEDNESDAY 3/24

Considered one of the largest in U.S. history, in 1989, the Exxon Valdez spilled approximately 11 million gallons of oil and polluted more than 700 miles of coastline.

THURSDAY 3/25

Awarded by the President of the United States, on National Medal of Honor Day, we salute those men and women who have gone above and beyond the call of duty.

FRIDAY 3/26

It's official! There is a holiday for everything. Don't believe us? Well, today is Make Up Your Own Holiday Day. Be creative because the sky's the limit. What will you celebrate today?

DID YOU KNOW?

SMALL TOWN EDITION

- You could consider the small town of Glasgow MT truly “in the middle of nowhere.” While 98% of the population in the lower 48 states lives within one hour of an urban center of at least 75,000 people, not so for Glasgow.
- Situated near the Canadian border and home to just over 3,000 people, it's the most isolated town in the contiguous U.S. according to the Malaria Atlas Project from Oxford's Big Data Institute.
- The nearest city to Glasgow in any direction is about a 4.5-hour drive.

IN OTHER WORDS...

"We mature emotionally when we choose to believe God's Truth no matter what our circumstances look like."

—Dannah Gresh

Weekly Verse

Therefore, preparing your minds for action, and being sober-minded, set your hope fully on the grace that will be brought to you at the revelation of Jesus Christ.

As obedient children, do not be conformed to the passions of your former ignorance, but as he who called you is holy, you also be holy in all your conduct, since it is written, “You shall be holy, for I am holy.”

1 Peter 1:13-16 (ESV)

LOOKING AHEAD

Though Easter is yet to be celebrated, around the corner is National Day of Prayer (May 6). Our tool kit is ready—and so is a new special from Carter Conlon, asking the pointed question ... Are We Too Proud to Really Pray?
