On This Day...

MONDAY 3/8

During a flight from Kuala Lumpur to Beijing, Malaysia Airlines flight 370 disappeared in 2014, prompting a massive search effort that remains unsolved to this day.

TUESDAY 3/9

Did I hear someone say Italian food? On National Meatball Day, try a new recipe and make a double batch—one for you and one for a fellow foodie.

WEDNESDAY 3/10

Remember the days of PB&J sandwiches and trading lunches in the cafeteria with friends? On National Pack Your Lunch Day, reminisce by making your childhood favorite meal.

THURSDAY 3/11

We see them all over the road these days. But in 2009, Toyota celebrated 1 million gas-electric hybrid vehicles purchased in the U.S., with sales led by the Prius.

FRIDAY 3/12

Eight days after his inauguration, President Roosevelt gave his first national radio address—known as “fireside chat”—which was broadcast directly from the White House in 1933.

DID YOU KNOW?

For about 70 years, the small Hawaiian island of Lanai was home to one of the world’s largest pineapple plantations, earning the nickname “Pineapple Island.” In 1922, James Drummond Dole purchased most of the island for $1.1 million to cultivate fields that would yield Dole Food Company’s pineapples. By 1930, the island was exporting 65,000 tons of pineapples a year, and at its peak produced 75% of the world’s supply of the tropical fruit. But Lanai stopped growing pineapples in 1992 after overseas competition made it less profitable.

Today, Costa Rica is the world’s top producer of pineapples.

IN OTHER WORDS...

"What influences the leader trickles down to those he leads — that's absolutely true of parents as well. Apply your heart to instruction and knowledge then teach your children. Because what influences you will trickle down to the children in your care."

–Ron Deal

Weekly Verse

Come to me, all you who are weary and burdened, and I will give you rest.

Take my yoke upon you and learn from me, for I am gentle and humble in heart, and you will find rest for your souls.

For my yoke is easy and my burden is light.

Matthew 11:28-30 (NIV)
