Week at a Glance

MONDAY 11/22

To infinity and beyond! Toy Story was the first feature film made solely from computer-generated images, and was released on this day in 1995.

TUESDAY 11/23

National Eat a Cranberry Day is all about keeping the traditions of including cranberries in your holiday meals. Make sure to eat one before it gets turned into sauce!

WEDNESDAY 11/24

The day before Thanksgiving is National Jukebox Day! As Americans head home for the holidays, they will gather with their loved ones around the jukebox ... or maybe the bluetooth speaker.

THURSDAY 11/25

However you gather to give thanks, may the warmth and beauty of this harvest season bring happiness to you and your family.

Happy Thanksgiving!

FRIDAY 11/26

Let the holiday shopping commence! Most retailers have moved their Black Friday sales to span over the entire weekend and honor the same sales for online orders as well.

DID YOU KNOW?

- In 1939, Franklin Roosevelt changed the date of Thanksgiving from the last Thursday in November to the second-to-last. The change was made in an attempt to lift the economy during the Great Depression, the idea being that it would give people more time to shop for Christmas. But it ended up making everybody confused. Most states held Thanksgiving on its original date, and three states – Colorado, Mississippi, and Texas – celebrated the holiday during both weeks!

- The tradition of football on Thanksgiving began in 1876 with a game between Yale and Princeton. The first NFL games were played on Thanksgiving in 1920.

- There are four towns in the United States named "Turkey." They can be found in Arizona, Texas, Louisiana, and North Carolina. There are also two townships in Pennsylvania called Upper Turkeyfoot and Lower Turkeyfoot.

IN OTHER WORDS...

"God works in the small moments. The insignificant becomes significant because He is ever orchestrating the day-to-day details of innumerable lives through a millennia of time to do what He has foreordained to do."
—Max Lucado

Weekly Verse

"Come, let us sing for joy to the Lord; let us shout aloud to the Rock of our salvation. Let us come before Him with thanksgiving and extol Him with music and song. For the Lord is the great God, the great King above all gods. In His hand are the depths of the earth, and the mountain peaks belong to Him. The sea is His, for He made it, and His hands formed the dry land."

Psalm 95:1-5 (NIV)

FROM CARTER CONLON

Don't miss these all-new specials for the holiday season, available from AmbOS, that will encourage listeners at Christmas and New Years—Christmas ... Your Light in the Darkness and 2022: Crisis or Confidence? Both focus on the importance of prayer as we end and begin a new year.
