Week at a Glance

MONDAY 11/8

In 1731, Benjamin Franklin helped to open the first lending library, the Library Company of Philadelphia. Franklin served as the librarian for a few years while opening other public libraries.

TUESDAY 11/9

Happy Go to an Art Museum Day! Museum field trips were a beloved part of childhood and that doesn't have to end. Find the closest art museum and explore the exhibits at your leisure!

WEDNESDAY 11/10

Can you tell me how to get to Sesame Street? On this day in 1969, Sesame Street made its broadcast debut and the show is now the most widely viewed children's program in the world.

THURSDAY 11/11

Of the 21.8 million veterans in the United States, more than 1.3 million served during multiple wars. Happy Veterans Day to all who have served in the Armed Forces—thank you for your service!

FRIDAY 11/12

Abbey Road Studios opened in London on this day 90 years ago. The studio was later made famous by The Beatles, who recorded most of their albums there.

DID YOU KNOW?

- Veterans Day was originally known as Armistice Day. Although WWI had officially ended, the fighting did not cease until an armistice was put into effect on the eleventh hour of the eleventh day of the eleventh month. It later became Veterans Day, a day to honor all American veterans.
- The theme for Veterans Day 2021 is centered on the centennial commemoration of the Tomb of the Unknown Soldier. Located at Arlington National Cemetery, the Tomb was initially dedicated on Armistice Day, November 11, 1921, with the burial of an unknown service member from World War I.
- Benjamin Franklin designed a musical instrument used by Mozart and Beethoven. The "glass armonica," an instrument designed to replicate the otherworldly sound that a wet finger makes when rubbed along the rim of a glass.

IN OTHER WORDS...

"The Bible is full of truths that can help you fight daily battles. But it's easy to get so caught up in the worries, thoughts and anxieties of life, that you miss hearing God's voice."

—Anne Graham Lotz

Weekly Verse

"The righteous cry out, and the Lord hears them; He delivers them from all their troubles. The Lord is close to the brokenhearted and saves those who are crushed in spirit. The righteous person may have many troubles, but the Lord delivers him from them all; He protects all his bones, not one of them will be broken."

Psalm 34: 17-20 (NIV)
