Week at a Glance

MONDAY 3/28

What do candy apples, popsicles, and corndogs all have in common? They are all on a stick! Happy National Something on a Stick Day and get creative with any food that can be served on a stick.

TUESDAY 3/29

World Piano Day is recognized on the 88th day of the year, which is the same as the number of keys on the piano! Today is a celebration of the piano and the talented individuals that play the instrument.

WEDNESDAY 3/30

Today is Doctors' Day! An annual observance aimed at the importance to recognize the hard work and dedication that physicians demonstrate in our hospitals and communities each day.

THURSDAY 3/31

First called the 300-meter Tower, it soon took the name of the man who built it, Gustave Eiffel. The Eiffel Tower was dedicated and opened to the public on this day in 1889.

FRIDAY 4/1

Apple Computers, Inc. was founded on April 1, 1976, by college dropouts Steve Jobs and Steve Wozniak, who brought to the new company a vision of changing the way people viewed computers.

DID YOU KNOW?

- Toad in the Hole is the ultimate British comfort food – soft sausages covered in crisp Yorkshire pudding, which is baked from a batter of eggs, flour, and milk, and typically served with onion gravy and vegetables.
- Completed in 1872, Belvedere Castle is one of the most famous features of New York City's Central Park. The miniature castle sits atop a rock outcrop known as Vista Rock, which is the second-highest natural point in the park and affords sweeping views of its 843 acres. In addition to being a lookout point and tourist attraction, the castle also serves as a weather reporting station.
- Arachibutyrophobia, refers to the fear of peanut butter sticking to the roof of your mouth.
- The AMC Gremlin was released on April 1, 1970. AMC advertised it saying "competitors will find there is nothing 'April Fool's like' about this car."

IN OTHER WORDS...

Weekly Verse

JAF FAMILY RETREATS

"Our world today is in moral and spiritual darkness. There's injustice, oppression, hopelessness, despair, cruelty, moral insanity, hatred, broken lives, broken relationships, broken homes. There's darkness in our own hearts ... But Jesus is the Light of the world. God wants to shine the light of Jesus through us so that the darkness is pushed back."

—Nancy DeMoss Wolgemuth

"Come, let us return to the Lord. He has torn us to pieces but He will heal us; He has injured us but He will bind up our wounds. After two days He will revive us; on the third day He will restore us, that we may live in His presence."

Hosea 6:1-2 (NIV)

All summer long (and before and after), Joni and Friends hosts week-long camps for families who are impacted by disability. We'd love for you to invite your listeners to serve—it'll be a life-changing experience.
