Week at a Glance

MONDAY 4/25

President Harry S. Truman officially opened the first White House bowling alley on April 25, 1947. The two-lane bowling alley, situated in the West Wing, had been constructed earlier that year.

TUESDAY 4/26

The woman who will always be remembered as the crazy, accident-prone, lovable Lucy Ricardo, passed away on this day in 1989. Lucille Ball is still remembered for her red hair and 'I Love Lucy' antics.

WEDNESDAY 4/27

On this day in 1947, the Yankees honored Babe Ruth at the house that he built, Yankee Stadium. The event was held to pay tribute to the baseball star who was nearing the end of his life as a result of cancer.

THURSDAY 4/28

National Superhero Day is a huge day for superhero geeks, movie lovers, artists, comic book collectors, and pop-culture enthusiasts. The day was founded in 1995 by none other than Marvel Comics.

FRIDAY 4/29

What did Luke Skywalker say on Arbor Day? May the FOREST be with you! Arbor Day is celebrated on the last Friday in April. Some states observe Arbor Day on different dates throughout the year based on best tree planting seasons. When does your state celebrate?

DID YOU KNOW?

- Truman rolled the first ball on the new White House alley, knocking down 7 out of 10 pins. One of the pins is now on display at the Smithsonian Institution.
- The Loop is the primary business district of Chicago and is home to some of the city's tallest and most famous buildings. The dominant structure of the neighborhood is the Willis Tower (formerly the Sears Tower), which is on the Loop's western end near the Chicago River. At 1,450 feet tall, Willis Tower was the tallest building in the world from its completion in 1973 until 1998.
 - Photographer Nat Fein took the rear-view photo of an ailing Babe Ruth at Yankee Stadium during a farewell to the Sultan of Swat on June 13, 1948. The photo, "Babe Bows Out," would become one of the most famous images of the 20th century.
 - Spiderman's first appearance is in the 15th edition of "Amazing Fantasy."

IN OTHER WORDS...

"A wife's power can move her relationship with her husband toward greater intimacy. It can also empower her husband to reach his potential as a godly man."

Weekly Verse

"Then Jesus came to them and said, 'All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to me. Therefore go and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, and teaching them to obey everything I have commanded you. And surely I am with you always, to the very end of the age.'"

Matthew 28:18-20 (NIV)

DAY OF PRAYER RESOURCES

Next week marks 2022's National Day of Prayer, themed "Exalt the Lord who has established us" (Colossians 2:6-7). Find appropriate PSAs, graphics, quotes and more in our station tool kit at the Ambassador website and use any way you wish to support the focus on prayer that day!
