Week at a Glance

MONDAY 6/20

Soar with the eagles! It's National American Eagle Day, which is dedicated to the bird of patriotism that has represented American freedom and strength since 1782.

TUESDAY 6/21

Grab your flip-flops, beach towel, and sunglasses because today is the first day of summer! The Summer Solstice also marks the longest day of sunlight, so take a moment to soak in the extra rays.

WEDNESDAY 6/22

We're pulling off the layers of today's delicious holiday: National Onion Ring Day. While the origins aren't clear, it's certain that the best way to celebrate is by eating a basket of this crunchy treat!

THURSDAY 6/23

What food is worth trading your birthright for? According to Esau, a warm bowl of lentil stew will do the trick. Celebrate National Porridge Day by reading Genesis 25:29-34 and trying this ancient dish for yourself.

FRIDAY 6/24

What's the cure for the dog days of summer? ... Take Your Dog to Work Day! Even though our furry friends might not be great at writing emails, they are exceptional at lowering stress levels and brightening up the workplace!

DID YOU KNOW?

- Yellowstone encompasses 3,472 square miles (2,221,766 acres) which makes it larger than Rhode Island and Delaware combined. However, the Northern portion of Yellowstone is likely to remain closed for substantial length of time due to the severe flooding of the Gardner and Lamar rivers in the past week.
- The 100 folds in a chef's hat are said to represent 100 ways to cook an egg.
- Ludwig van Beethoven went out of his way to ensure his morning coffee was made with exactly 60 beans per cup.
- Jupiter is the 5th planet from the sun and it is the biggest of all planets in the solar system. It is a giant gaseous planet and about 2.5 times the size of all planets combined in the solar system. It spins on its axis in the opposite direction as opposed to most planets and is also the fastest spinning!

IN OTHER WORDS...

"There will never, ever be a time when God will not be God, when He will not be present, when He will not be in control, when He will not be sovereign over every detail of our lives."

—Nancy DeMoss Wolgemuth

Weekly Verse

"The Lord is compassionate and gracious, slow to anger, abounding in love. He will not always accuse, nor will He harbor His anger forever: He does not treat us as our sins deserve or repay us according to our iniquities."

Psalms 103:8-10 (NIV)
