Week at a Glance

MONDAY 6/6

A moment that changed history: the 1944 Allied invasion of France known as D-Day. This invasion was one of the largest amphibious military assaults in history and ultimately was an Allied success.

TUESDAY 6/7

Calling all chocolate lovers! It's National Chocolate Ice Cream Day so treat yourself to a couple scoops of this delicious treat. This is a holiday you'll want to celebrate all year long!

WEDNESDAY 6/8

Friends bring joy, laughter, and comfort to our lives. Today is National Best Friends Day . . . a great reminder to tell your B.F.F. how much you appreciate them (don't forget your furry friends too!).

THURSDAY 6/9

Introduced to the nation on June 9 in 1934, Donald Duck starred in "The Wise Little Hen." National Donald Duck Day is dedicated to this iconic character who has made audiences laugh for almost 90 years.

FRIDAY 6/10

A "lightbulb moment" just needs a little bit of lightning. On June 10 in 1752, Benjamin Franklin flew a kite during a thunderstorm and made the important connection between lightning and electricity.

DID YOU KNOW?

- Rain ruined vendor George Boyington's stock of hot dog buns in 1939, but he recovered with the idea of a bunless, battered, and fried weiner. His solution, the Pronto Pup, was a smash at the Minnesota State Fair.

- The hashtag symbol is technically called an octothorpe.

- When it comes to smiles, Tom Cruise's teeth might take the cake ... unless you look very closely. Many fans have noticed that Cruise's right front tooth is just a tad askew and has been widely referred to as his "middle tooth" for a while now.

- Indonesia is composed of some 17,500 islands. While more than 7K of those are uninhabited, others are home to millions of people. Some of the archipelagic nation's largest islands are Java (the world's most populous island), Sumatra, Borneo, and Sulawesi.

IN OTHER WORDS...

"Jesus sees you. You and I aren't invisible. We aren't overlooked. Jesus spots us on the side of the road, and He makes the first move."

—Max Lucado

Weekly Verse

"Just as people are destined to die once, and after that to face judgment, so Christ was sacrificed once to take away the sins of many; and He will appear a second time, not to bear sin, but to bring salvation to those who are waiting for Him."

Hebrews 9:27-28 (NIV)
