Week at a Glance

MONDAY 7/11

Ten paces, turn, and fire! On this day in 1804, Alexander Hamilton and Aaron Burr dueled over political bitterness. Hamilton purposely wasted his shot but Burr struck him in his ribs, resulting in Hamilton's death.

TUESDAY 7/12

On July 12, 1957, Dwight D. Eisenhower becomes the first president to ride in the newest advance in aviation technology: the helicopter. It was 10 years after the helicopter had been tested that the president considered using the machine.

WEDNESDAY 7/13

Even though it's Wednesday, today we are celebrating FRYday! That's right . . . it's National French Fry Day! Fun Fact: the average American consumes 30 pounds of fries each year.

THURSDAY 7/14

Encouraged by the success of the American Revolution, the French quickly rose up against their monarchy. The French Revolution began on July 14 in 1789 by storming the Bastille, a prison that represented tyrannical oppression.

FRIDAY 7/15

"Freely you have received; freely give." Today is National Give Something Away Day, a reminder to not only donate physical items but also to give away the Good News, love, peace, and hope that has been given to you in Jesus Christ!

DID YOU KNOW?

- The official presidential helicopter is always called Marine One, just as the official presidential airplane is always referred to as Air Force One. Marine One and a second decoy helicopter now accompany Air Force One on all presidential trips.
- More than 60% of the Icelandic population live in the capital city, Reykjavik. It is also the most northern capital city in the world.
- Canadians eat 55% more Kraft Macaroni & Cheese than Americans.
- There is only one US state currently without scheduled commercial airline service. Can you name it? Delaware. Frontier ended its service between New Castle Airport and Orlando in early June, leaving Delaware as the only state that you can't fly to on a commercial jet.

IN OTHER WORDS...

"God's care for you goes far deeper than your comfort. The Lord cares most about the state of your soul. He will let suffering wound you, all right, if, indeed, it means you will be made more like Christ."

—Joni Eareckson Tada

Weekly Verse

"As for God, His way is perfect: the Lord's word is flawless; He shields all who take refuge in Him. For who is God besides the Lord? And who is the Rock except our God? It is God who arms me with strength and keeps my way secure."

Psalm 18:30-32 (NIV)

THINKING PRO-LIFE

While SCOTUS has made its ruling, the debate continues. Share the most accurate information about the Roe v. Wade reversal by interviewing Brad Mattes, President of Life Issues Institute.
