Week at a Glance

MONDAY 10/31

Today may be marked by candy and pumpkins, but it is also the day that Martin Luther nailed his Ninety-Five Theses to the church door in 1517. This invitation for debate soon became what is now called the Protestant Reformation.

TUESDAY 11/1

The first NBA game, held in Toronto in 1946, cost fans only .75c-$2.50 to watch. The New York Knickerbockers, now known as The Knicks, beat the Toronto Huskies in this inaugural game.

WEDNESDAY 11/2

NASA Astronaut Bill Shepherd and cosmonauts Yuri Gidzenko and Sergei Krikalev become the first crew to reside onboard the International Space Station in 2000. This first expedition crew spent four months to bring the station to life.

THURSDAY 11/3

Use your lunch break today to celebrate National Sandwich Day! The sandwich is believed to be the namesake of John Montagu, the 4th Earl of Sandwich who, or rather whose chef, invented the first sandwich.

FRIDAY 11/4

In 1922, a team headed by Egyptologist Howard Carter began excavating the tomb of Tutankhamun in the Valley of the Kings, Egypt. King Tut was an Egyptian pharaoh who ruled from 1333 BC, when he was just nine years old, until his death in 1323 BC.

DID YOU KNOW?

- Harry Houdini (aka Ehrich Weisz) became America's favorite magician and a world-renown legend for his daring escapes. Many find it fitting, then, that this trickster died on October 31, 1926.

- At the first NBA game, if you were taller than the tallest Toronto Huskies player (6 ft 8 in), you could attend the opening game for free.

- The most layers in a sandwich is 60 and was achieved by DiLusso Deli Company at Madison Square Park in New York, New York in 2016.

- King Tut's tomb had hoards of treasure, intended to accompany the king into the afterlife. The treasures revealed an incredible amount about life in ancient Egypt, and made Tutankhamun the world's most famous pharaoh.

IN OTHER WORDS...

"The thing to do is not keep going back to what we lost, but to keep looking ahead at what we're going to gain."

—Charles Morris

To hear more from Charles, air HAVEN Today (26:00 daily) and HAVEN Now (1:00 daily).

Weekly Verse

Above all, you must understand that no prophecy of Scripture came about by the prophet's own interpretation of things. For prophecy never had its origin in the human will, but prophets, though human, spoke from God as they were carried along by the Holy Spirit.

2 Peter 1:20-21 (NIV)
