Week at a Glance

MONDAY 11/28

The Grand Ole Opry began broadcasting live from Nashville, Tennessee in 1925. Originally named the Barn Dance after a Chicago radio program, the showcase featured country-western and folk music.

TUESDAY 11/29

Every year, the Tuesday after Thanksgiving is set aside for the global generosity movement, Giving Tuesday. It's a great opportunity to help those in need by donating to your favorite charity!

WEDNESDAY 11/30

Starting in 1931, the famous Rockefeller Center Christmas tree had a humble beginning with a 20ft balsam fir. Now, the Center boasts an 82ft tall Norway Spruce from the New York town of Queensbury.

THURSDAY 12/1

What better way to get into the holiday spirit than with Peppermint Bark Day! Williams Sonoma's founder, Chuck Williams, invented this seasonal treat in 1998 which takes more than 24hrs from start to finish to complete.

FRIDAY 12/2

Born today in 1859, Georges Seurat would become the founder of the school of Neo-Impressionism which involves Pointillism. This technique uses thousands of tiny dots of paint to complete a full image.

DID YOU KNOW?

- Richard Nixon is the only president to ever perform at the Grand Ole Opry. When the Opry moved from the Ryman Auditorium to its "new" home at Opry House in 1974, Mr. Nixon came to Nashville.
  - With television becoming a household standard, the Rockefeller Center Christmas tree tradition received national coverage via the NBC company for the first time in 1951.
    - The most popular Christmas tree variety is the balsam fir and it's also the most fragrant. They're durable and have short, flat, dark green needles.
      - Georges Seurat's most famous painting is A Sunday on La Grande Jatte (1884-1886). The painting is located at The Art Institute of Chicago in Chicago's Grant Park.

IN OTHER WORDS...

"To abide in Jesus is first and foremost to be nourished by His life-giving flesh by faith."

—Adriel Sanchez

Weekly Verse

Therefore, since we are receiving a Kingdom that cannot be shaken, let us be thankful, and so worship God acceptably with reverence and awe, for our "God is a consuming fire."

Hebrews 12:28-29 (NIV)
