

MONDAY 1/16

“Use me, God. Show me how to take who I am, who I want to be, and what I can do, and use it for a purpose greater than myself.” Martin Luther King Jr.’s prayer continues to inspire us to this day, as we remember his life and work.

TUESDAY 1/17

At the General Motors’ Motorama auto show in 1953, a prototype Chevrolet Corvette sports car was unveiled. The Corvette, which got its name from a naval ship, soon become an American icon still popular today.

WEDNESDAY 1/18

A.A. Milne, born today in 1882 wrote his first children’s story for his son, Christopher Robin, in 1924. This led him to create the beloved characters and stories of Winnie the Pooh, who reminds us that “a day without a friend is like a pot without a single drop of honey left inside.”

THURSDAY 1/19

How do you spell success? An architect in 1933 soon found out when he invented a game that combined the chance from dice games and the challenge of crossword puzzles. Scrabble was trademarked in 1948 and is now found in almost every American home.
