

For the week of:
04|17|2023

Get the low-down from a high-up perspective!

the mAAA^x

MONDAY 4/17

“Houston, we’ve had a problem” (Yes! The actual phrase!). These five words given by astronaut John Swigert aboard the Apollo 13 would forever be cemented in American history. Thankfully, the crew returned home safely on April 17th six days after the launch.

TUESDAY 4/18

Take to the airwaves today on World Amateur Radio Day. The radio frequency spectrum used by amateur radio, often known as HAM radio, is usually used for non-commercial uses like private recreation and emergency communication.

WEDNESDAY 4/19

Did you know that ancient Egyptians used garlic as currency? This pungent vegetable was also known to be used in healing anything from the common cold to smallpox. Celebrate this much loved plant today on National Garlic Day!

THURSDAY 4/20

Scoring 63 points, the legendary Michael Jordan of the Chicago Bulls setting a still standing playoff scoring record in 1986. The following year, "Air Jordan" passed Wilt Chamberlain to become the second only NBA player to score 3,000 points in a season.

FRIDAY 4/21

Sworn in as the nation's first vice president today in 1789, John Adams with wife Abigail in a span of 12 years followed the federal government as it moved from NYC to Philadelphia and finally to D.C. Adams passed away on July 4th, 1826, the fiftieth anniversary of the Declaration of Independence.

DID YOU KNOW?

- The Apollo 13 mission lasted for 5 days, 18 hours, 35 minutes and 41 seconds.
- NASA has its own radio Station! It's called Third Rock Radio and it only plays alternative rock music.
- How much garlic does the average person eat each year? 2 lbs of garlic each year. With the average clove weighing about 3 grams, 2 lbs of garlic is over 300 cloves.
- Michael Jordan was a mentor to Kobe Bryant and spoke at Bryant's memorial after he died in 2020.
- The Adams were the first First Family to occupy the White House.

... And the Latest from Ambassador

National Day of Prayer 2023 (May 4)

In Carter Conlon's all-new 25:00 special, he creatively reminds us of what prayer means in the life of the believer. With reflection on Mark 11:22-24, “What If I Am the Mountain” examines how our lack of faith can sometimes be the “mountain” that seems insurmountable—but is not!

Contact Rebecca@ambaa.com for more details.

I know that everything God does will endure forever; nothing can be added to it and nothing taken from it. God does it so that people will fear Him.

Ecclesiastes 3:14 (NIV)