MONDAY 8/28

On this day in 1963, some 200,000 people marched on Washington, D.C., an event that became a high point of the civil rights movement, especially remembered for the famous "I Have a Dream" speech of Martin Luther King, Jr.

TUESDAY 8/29

August 29, 2005, Hurricane Katrina, packing winds of 145 mph, made landfall out of the Gulf of Mexico near Buras, Louisiana, and headed north towards the historic city of New Orleans, Louisiana, and the state of Mississippi. Katrina is one of the worst natural disasters in United States history.

WEDNESDAY 8/30

Grab your shades, feel the breeze, and make a splash with family and friends on National Beach Day! Whether you're a sunbather, a sandcastle architect, a beach volleyball pro, or a shell collector, today is your perfect excuse to embrace the beauty of our coastal wonders.

THURSDAY 8/31

On this day in 1950, Gil Hodges, the Brooklyn Dodgers' first baseman, hit four homers in one game. The Boston Braves lost the game 3-18 and Hodges became the sixth player in history with a four-homer game. He was elected to the Hall of Fame in 2022.

FRIDAY 9/1

A chime that has echoed throughout history! In 1752, a significant chapter in American history unfolded as the iconic Liberty Bell arrived in Philadelphia. The bell has gone on to become an enduring emblem of liberty and democracy.

DID YOU KNOW?

- Though it is one of the most famous and widely celebrated speeches in U.S. history, the "I Have a Dream" speech is not in the public domain, but is protected by copyright—which is owned and enforced by King's heirs.
- The National Hurricane Center originated the name lists for storms in 1953. Only women's names were used until 1979, when the lists began alternating women's and men's names.
- The Baseball Hall of Fame is comprised of 342 elected members. Included are 270 former major league players, 40 executives/pioneers, 22 managers and 10 umpires.
- The Liberty Bell is composed of approximately 70 percent copper, 25 percent tin and traces of lead, zinc, arsenic, gold and silver.
- As the death toll from the most current natural disaster rises, prayers continue for Lahaina, Hawaii and the impact of the deadliest U.S. wildfire in more than century.
