THURSDAY 11/30

M-i-ss-i-ss-i-pp-i, today is Mississippi Day! The state proudly claims the title of the "Birthplace of America's Music," with legendary musicians like B.B. King and Elvis Presley getting their groove on in the Magnolia State. Known for more than just its legendary music scene, Mississippi boasts a playground of natural wonders, with the serene Natchez Trace and the Gulf Coast's sandy shores calling out to adventurers.

FRIDAY 12/1

With courage as her compass, Rosa Parks took a stand by staying seated, challenging segregation on a Montgomery bus today in 1955. Her refusal to surrender her seat to a white man sparked a fire of resistance that spread far beyond the bus aisle. Parks' legacy lives on as a reminder that a single act of courage can ripple through time, breaking barriers and paving the way for a brighter future.
