

For the week of:
11|06|2023

Get the low-down from a high-up perspective!

the mAAA<sup>x</sup>

MONDAY 11/6

Today is nacho average holiday . . . that's because it's National Nachos Day! Did you know that this popular appetizer is named after its creator? Ignacio "Nacho" Garcia invented the cheesy combination in the 1940s and the rest is history!

TUESDAY 11/7

November 7th is Election Day in the USA! Although there's lots of emphasis on next year's presidential election, don't forget that the causes on your state's ballot are also a matter of prayer and voting. So when you're at the polls, don't forget to pray as 1 Timothy 2:1-2 encourages Christians to: "I urge that supplications, prayers, intercessions, and thanksgivings be made for all people, for kings and all who are in high positions, that we may lead a peaceful and quiet life, godly and dignified in every way."

WEDNESDAY 11/8

Time for a cup of 'ccino because today is National Cappuccino Day! The delicious combination of espresso, steamed, and foamed milk is a drink found in a traditional Italian breakfast. Thankfully espresso machines spread in popularity after World War II and now we enjoy yummy cappuccinos in the United States. Let's make it a brew-tiful day!

THURSDAY 11/9

On this day in 1989, East Germany opened the Berlin Wall. The "Iron Curtain" that divided East from West Berlin represented division and separation for many during the Cold War. Once the wall was opened people began to tear down the 96-mile concrete wall, symbolizing the freedom being brought to East Berlin.

FRIDAY 11/10

Elmo, Big Bird, Cookie Monster, Bert, Ernie, and Oscar first said hello during the premiere of Sesame Street on November 10th in 1969. This beloved show has educated and entertained young children (and adults!) for over 50 years. It remains the longest running children's TV show with over 200 Emmy awards and 11 Grammy awards!

DID YOU KNOW?

- The "recipe" for original nachos was super simple. It only included freshly fried tortilla chips, shredded cheese and jalapeños.
- In the 1872 election, President Grant ran against Horace Greeley, who died on November 29, which was after the presidential election but before the Electoral College cast its votes.
- The steamed foam on a cappuccino serves as an insulator and allows the liquid to retain its heat for a longer period of time.
- The full physical demolition of the Berlin Wall was not complete until 1992.
- Oscar the Grouch, the crankiest neighbor on "Sesame Street" is known for his grumpy demeanor as well as his green fur. But you may not have known that in the show's first season, he had orange fur.

... And the Latest from Ambassador

"A CHILD IS BORN"

There's nothing like the voices of children reciting the Christmas story to touch our hearts and clearly express the sweet story of the manger birth of Jesus. We invite you to use 18 x :30 spots (customizable on request) that share the favorite Scriptures of the season. Contact Rebecca@ambaa.com for all details.

"If only we would recognize difficult times as something God has chosen to prove His love to us; then each trial would usher us into a place of divine shelter, of rest and a demonstration to others of God's power."

Joni Eareckson Tada

